The Ideal Candidate

The Riverside Medical Group is actively recruiting a new Oncologist to join our existing employed group. The ideal candidate is a team-oriented, friendly, and ambitious individual who is BE/BC. Experience is appreciated, but not required. Average 15-20 patients a day. This physician will serve as an additional provider at our existing clinic in order to provide quality patient care and further organizational growth.

The Practice

The Riverside Cancer Institute's team of medical experts is here to provide the most comprehensive cancer care along with an unwavering commitment to defeating your cancer with greater accuracy and in the least invasive way possible. Our cancer care team includes hematology/oncology physicians, radiation oncologists, and nurse practitioners specializing in cancer care, as well as an entire team of multidisciplinary experts to assist with every aspect of your cancer journey from diagnosis through recovery and your life as a survivor.

The Organization

Riverside Medical Center offers clinical excellence, superior quality and safety. The Riverside Medical Group is composed of 145 providers who have a "voice" in how their practice is run. With consistent leadership, financial stability and a continued growth strategy in place, Riverside Medical Center has earned national recognition. At Riverside, candidates can expect to find an outpatient practice with flexible scheduling, state-of-the-art facilities and equipment, full administrative support, EPIC EMR, financial success, and more!
